

A man bought a cloth for example. He washed it, dyed it and embroidered it. The price hence increased. Or Question 810) - A man bought a cloth for example. He washed it, dyed it and embroidered it. The price hence increased. Or he bought food and paid a porter to carry it. Or put a silk border on the cloth he bought. What is the method of Murabahah here?

A: Murabahah is allowed, but he may not say, "I bought it for so much," he must say, "This has cost me so much."

~ al-Quduri ~