

Question 1289) - The gift perishes and a third party emerges as the legitimate owner and holds the recipient liable. Can the recipient claim against the presenter?

A: No.

~ al-Quduri ~