

Question 1481) - A guardian got a child, male or female, married without asking permission. Is the marriage valid?

A: Yes it is valid. The guardian need not ask them permission, and this is what is meant by the guardian forcing them. This rule is general for the girl, whether she is a virgin or not.*

* The meaning of her not being a virgin is that her guardian got her married before and her husband died before she attained puberty.

~ al-Quduri ~