

Question 1485) - The guardians got children married in their childhood. Do the boy and the girl have a right to cancel the marriage when they attain puberty?

A: If a father or grandfather got them married then they have no choice. If someone else got them married then each of them may decide whether to continue the marriage or to cancel it.

~ al-Quduri ~