

Question 1703) - If the husband regrets making the Ila and wishes to make Fay i.e. have sex with her within the four months as cancellation of the Ila. However, he is ill and unable to have sex; or the wife is sick or so young that she cannot have sex; or they are so far away from each other that they cannot meet in the Ila period. How then can he make Fay?

A: In such circumstances he will make Fay by verbally saying, "I have made Fay to her." In that way the Ila is terminated.
