

Question 2411) - Who is entitled to the quarter?

A: The husband if his late wife has no children or son's children whether from him or another man. Similarly the wife of the deceased, if he had no children or son's children whether from her or another woman. If there are several wives they all share in the quarter.

~ al-Quduri ~