

Question 872) - A Salam sale was concluded. The seller then wished to transact with the payment received or the buyer wished to transact with the goods receivable. What is the ruling?

A: Neither may transact until the goods are possessed. This includes that no partnership or Tawliyah transaction may be done before the possession.

~ al-Quduri ~