

Question 2288) - Is it permissible to take women and copies of the Quraan with into enemy lands?

A: If the Muslim army is large enough that they are satisfied that they can protect the women and Manuscripts, they may do so. If they are small and cannot guarantee protection then it would be Makruh.

~ al-Quduri ~