

Question 2070) - Which animals can be slaughtered for Udhiyah?

A: Camels, goats and cattle and nothing else. In all these the animal must have completed at least a year except for a sheep in which case a Jaza '[six month old]' is allowed. Goats of any of its three categories are allowed.

~ al-Quduri ~