

Question 2336) - What are the special regulations pertaining to the Zimmis living in Darul Islaam.

A: They may not build churches and synagogues in Darul Islaam. The ruler may permit them to restore those places of worship which fell into ruin before Islaam gained dominance. They will be ordered to distinguish themselves from the Muslims by means of their attire, mounts, saddles, and headgear. They may not mount horses and may not carry weapons.
