Question 89) - What is Istihadah?

A: It occurs in several forms:

- 1. If she bleeds and it stops before three clays it is Istihadah.
- 2. What goes over her normal period or over ten days is Istihadah.
- 3. If she bleeds for the first time and it goes over 10 days, then the ten days are menses and the rest Istihadah. If this bleeding of a beginner goes on for years, then her menses is ten days of every month, the rest Istihadah.
- 4. The bleeding of a pregnant woman is Istihadah.
- 5. Tea bleeding of a pregnant woman before giving birth is Istihadah.
- 6. If a woman in Nifas has a set known period, and her Nifas bleeding exceeds 40 days, then what exceeds her period is Istihadah.
- 7. If however, a woman gave birth for the first time and she bleeds for more than 40 days, then the 40 days is Nifas and the rest Istihadah.
- 8. If she has a miscarriage and no organ of the foetus is completed and this period cannot be her menses, then it is Istihadah.

~ al-Quduri ~